I wrote medical on the kiosk and seen them 2 weeks later and was trying to obtain the meds I had been given for 10+ years in my time incarceration. They denied me. And gave me, something else. During my health and physical I saw Dr. Chappel and Nurse Kim and told them I may have had a seizure due to the drugs. But no medical assistance was given as it was my opinion they used my own diagnosis as a basis to put me on a job restricted which has prolonged my time and caused me to be confined when I otherwise wouldn't and my mental pain and suffering due to denial of my medications which SHP has prescribed me in Robertson County jail, shows discrimination and lack of Chappel from SHP be held accountable for denying me my medications and for keeping me from my job when I never had a documented seizure in the jail.
